 - Early bird discount (5%) for those whose initial registration/deposit are received by January 15th.
- The final deposit ($1,150) must be received by April 15th⁴.

*¹ Cost covers all expenses after arrival in Flagstaff, AZ May 5th, including food, housing, tickets, bus, staff/instruction, miscellaneous expenses, and (for the students) supplies.

*² The full initial deposit will be returned (minus any electronic processing fees) if the course is cancelled due to insufficient registrations or if available slots are filled. If the course is not cancelled and a student withdraws from the course before April 15th, half of his/her initial deposit will be refunded (minus any electronic processing fee).

*³ All individuals onsite who will be at least 18 by May 5th must pay the instructor to have a background check conducted on them.

*⁴ Withdrawing from the course between April 15th and 5th will result in a refund of the 2nd deposit only (minus e-fees).

*⁵ Students will be given preference regarding space. There will be a limited number of seats on the buses. In the event that all seats are filled by students/staff, guests will need to arrange their own rental car (e.g., coordinating with other guests).

How to Pay:

- Checks can be made out to Apologetics Press. Checks should be mailed in time to reach AP by the due dates. It is advised that you email Dr. Miller (Jeff@apologeticspress.org) if you sent a check via mail. NOTE: It is important that the "For" line of the check be labeled "Flooded Course CC" followed by the student's name. Send the checks to: Apologetics Press, Attn. Jeff Miller, 230 Landmark Dr., Montgomery, AL 36117.
- To pay electronically, go to FloodedBook.org/FloodedCourseCC/ and click the appropriate link to pay through the AP webstore. NOTE: an electronic processing fee will be added to your payment amount.

Tentative Schedule

- By February—Students acquire a copy of Flooded [store.apologeticspress.org/products/flooded]
- March 1st—Students begin reading Flooded and taking quizzes on the FloodedQuizzes.org site. [The book should be finished and all quizzes completed before May 5th.] Parents are advised to book flights for their student(s) by this point.
- May 5th—Those flying should arrive at the Phoenix Airport in time to catch the course buses. [Bus departure time to be announced in the coming weeks.]
- May 5th-16th—Course ensues. Besides the quizzes which should be completed prior to the onsite portion of the course, the course will include lecture, laboratories, an exam, videos, a final paper, and fieldtrips to (tentatively)

Grand Canyon, Grand Canyon Caverns, S&P Crater, Meteor Crater, Petrified Forest/Painted Desert, Museum of Northern Arizona, Out of Africa Wildlife Park, Lowell Observatory, and Lava River Cave.

- May 16th—Leave the housing facilities. The course bus will drive to the airport those students who are flying. [Ensure that the departure flight is after the bus arrival time. Bus schedule to be announced in the coming weeks.]
- June 7th—Tentative due date of Essay

E-mail is the primary means by which Dr. Miller will be contacting those attending the course.

(1) Be sure to fill in the e-mail blank with a working e-mail (even if it is a parent's e-mail address);

(2) Be sure to regularly check your e-mail (including your Spam/Junk folder)
